Proposal Guidelines

Students are invited from any evaluation-related discipline (e.g., education, health, psychology, social work, policy) to submit proposals for paper, round table, or poster presentations at the 22nd Annual Edward F. Kelly Evaluation Conference. Papers may relate to a wide range of issues associated with evaluation theory and practice (e.g., innovative methodologies, research on evaluation, conceptual issues, epistemological foundations). Papers relating to any type of evaluation (e.g., policy, program, product, etc.) will be accepted.

Presentation Formats

- Paper Sessions 15 minute presentation of your paper followed by a 5 minute question period. Complete papers must be submitted by April 25th, for publication in conference proceedings
- Round Table 10 minute presentation of your paper in a small-group format followed by 20 minutes of discussion with round table participants.
- Poster Session A display opportunity of your paper on a tri-fold poster board in an informal session involving conference delegates.

Proposal Submission

Proposals are to be submitted electronically at: <http://www.albany.edu/kelly>
Proposals include a 250 word abstract of your paper and identification of presentation format.
